How to Survive the End of the World — Week 5 — Good News & Bad News: Heaven and Hell

Psalm 16:11 says, “You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand.” Through Jesus Christ the path of eternal life has been made clear. No one comes to the Father except through Jesus (John 14:6). This is the truth that all of us must face: after our death it will be too late to deal with Jesus. Today is the day of Salvation!

- Why do so many people have a hard time believing that God wants them?
- Read Hebrews 2:3-4. How has God shown us that he wants us in heaven, not hell?
- What is the gospel? Why is it important that you know how to share the gospel with others?
- For the person who has already accepted Jesus, why is the gospel important?
- Why don't we see a high level of urgency to share the gospel among many Christ-followers?

There is nothing deeper than the gospel. As a Christ-follower we should never be bored with it. Our urgency to share the gospel is driven by what we believe about the gospel. If we truly believe Jesus' death paid for our sins and through him we have eternal life, what are we waiting for? We need to be speaking the good news everywhere. There is a world of people waiting to hear the good news of Jesus Christ from you.
